THE Band of the 1st Shropshire L. L. will play the following programme at the Officers' Mess to-night, commencing at 8 o'clock :-

THE streets in Fatshatt are now being inundated (says the Wah Tex Yat Po) by freshets of the Pei Kiang and Se Kiang, and the Western Gate in Canton by the Chu Kiang-due to the heavy rainfalls. Although greatly obstructing the traffic in . the thoroughfares, the inundations are salculated to mitigate the virulence of the plague, by cleaning the streets and finshing the drains to a considerable extent. While the plague in Canton is everywhere gradually decressing, still in the place known as Man King Un, in the Western part of the city, as well as at the Eastern month ended on the 27th inst.; and from the morning to the afternoon of the 27th. the number came up to even 2520-a mere gauge of the progress of the plague. The expense of engaging men to pick them up and to bury them afterwards is all borne by a mandarin, Lo Kai shan, who has made a name for himself now in connection with 876 the piague.

THE CHINA REVIEW. PUBLISHED BI.MONTHLY.

THIS Review, which was intended to meet the wants of many students of Chinese caused by the discontinuance of 'Notes and Queries on China and Japan,' has reached its Twenty-first Volume. The Review discusses those topics which are upperment in the minds of students of the 'Far East' and about which every intelligent person connected with China or Japan is desirous of acquiring trustworthy information. It includes many interesting Notes and original cludes many interesting Notes and original Papers on the Arts, Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Interature, Mythology, Natural History, Antiquities, and Social Manners and Customs, etc., etc., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, and the Far East generally. Recently a new departure has been taken, and the Review now gives papers on Trade, Commerce, and Descriptive notes of Travel by well-known writers. It was thought that by extending the scope of the Review in this direction, the Magazine would be made more generally the Magazine would be made more generally The Review department receives special attention, and endeavours are made to present a careful and concise record of Literature on China etc., and to give critiques embodying skatches of the Most recent works on such topics. Authors and Publishers are requested to forward works to 'Editor, China Review, care of China or any of the Modern Languages are received. The papers are contributed by the members of the various Consular, the Imperial Customs, and Hongkong Services, and also by the Missionary bodies amongst whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is assiduously cultivated. Amongst the regular contributors are Drs. Chalmers, Eitel, Brotschneider, and Hirth, Professor Legge, and Messra Balfour, Watters, Stent, Phillips, MacIntyre, Groot, Jamieson, Faber, Kopsch, Parker, Playfair, Giles, Piton, and Taylor,—all well-known names, indicative of sound scholarship and thorough mastery of their subject. The Subscription is fixed at $6.50 per annum, postage included - payable in ad-Orders for binding volumes will be promptly attended to; Address, 'Manager, China Mail Office.'

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS. 'All our learned societies should sub scribe to this scholarly and enterprising Review.'-Northern Christian Advocate (U.S.) 'The China Review * * * * has an excellent table of contents. - Celestial Empire. The Publication always contains subjects of interest to sojourners in the Far East and the present issue will hold favourable if not advantageous comparison, with preceding numbers.'—Celestial Empire,

This number contains several articles of interest and value.'-North-China Herald. The China Review for September-October fully maintains the high standard excellence which characterises that publication, and altogether forms a very interesting and readable number. Meteorologists will find an interesting and valuable contribution by Dr. Fritscho, on "the Amount of Precipitation (Rain and Snow) of Peking," showing the results of observations made at the Imperial Russian Observatory at Peking, from 1841 to . 1880. "Notes on the Dutch Occupation of Formosa," by Mr. Geo. Phillips, contain some interesting information, although much of it is second-hand. The Notices of New Books include a most generous and appreciative review of "The Divine Classic of Nan-Hua," and the Notes and Queries are as usual very interesting. - North-China Daily News. A substantial and reliable Review which all students of Ohina and the Chinese would do well to patronise.'-Chrysanthemum. The November-December number of the China Review contains less variety than usual, but the few articles are very interesting. The opening paper by Mr Herbert A. Glies on "The New Testament in Chinese" treats of a question that must neces-sarily be of great importance in the eyes of all missionaries. Mr E. H. Parker's "Short Journeys in Szechuen' are continued, and a goodly instalment of these travels in the interior of China is given. Mr. F. H. Balfour contributes a paper of some length entitled "The Emperor Cheng, founder of the Chinese Em-pire," which will be read with gonuine Interest by students of Chinese history. A few short notices of New Books and a number of Notes and Queries, one of which "On Chinese Oaths in Western Borneo and Java" might appropriately have been placed under a separate heading, complete the number. H.K. Daily Press.

Trubner's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review:-The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, some what similar to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review. The great degree of atupon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering some such channel of publigity as is now provided extremely desirable; and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked or from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs' corps, and the missionary body, among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assiduously cultivated, and who are severally represented in the first number of the Review by papers highly creditable to their respective authors

Bome translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshness of style; and an account of the career of the Chinese post-statesman of the eleventh century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bowra, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Regiew, if carried out with punctuality we are glad to notice that and detail, we are glad to notice that Notes and Queries are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contributions on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar dogres of literary sent to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its prodecomor in the field, and that the China Review may receive the support necessary to insure
